Subject : Invitation to join the 4th International Conference on Research Collaboration in Environmental Science (ICRC) 2025

Number : KitaQ/4-ICRC/UND/PUN/039

Dear Fadlilatul Taufany, S.T., Ph.D.

We are delighted to invite Institut Teknologi Sepuluh November to attend the forthcoming 4th International Conference on Research Collaboration in Environmental Science (ICRC) 2025 (<https://kitakyushu-indonesia.com/>). This conference will be held in a hybrid format, allowing attendees the flexibility to participate either in person at the University of Kitakyushu or virtually, from anywhere. Here is the conference overview:

General Topic:

“Integrative Strategies for Sustainable Environmental Protection: Technological Innovation, Educational Approaches, and Economic Models”

Format:

- Hybrid [Link will be provided as the conference date approaches]
- Venue for In-Person Attendance: University of Kitakyushu
- Date: Saturday, May 31st, 2025

Integrated Workshop Sessions:

After the conference, workshops will provide hands-on experiences and deeper insights into key topics. The full program is available at: <https://kitakyushu-indonesia.com/#programmes>.

Publication Prospects:

All submitted papers will be proposed to be published in the IOP Conference Series – Earth and Environmental and Science (EES); Indonesian Journal of Urban and Environmental Technology (Urbanenvirotec); and The University of Kitakyushu Book Chapter based on the agreed review process depending on the editor-publisher. Submission and publication details can be found at <https://kitakyushu-indonesia.com/call-for-papers/publication/>.

Registration Process: <https://bit.ly/Registration-and-Submission-ICRC2025>

We believe the collaboration between the University of Kitakyushu and Institut Teknologi Sepuluh November will significantly enhance the conference's impact, drawing on our combined expertise and networks in environmental science.

We eagerly anticipate your positive response and hope to collaborate closely to ensure the success of ICRC 2025. Please contact us at rachmanindriyani@gmail.com (+81 80-3968-3441) or miftahadi.fitra@gmail.com (+81 80-7654-4552) to discuss this partnership further.

In addition, each partner university is required to submit a minimum of three research articles to participate in the conference. Universities that can submit more than this minimum will be privileged to have their logo featured prominently as part of the conference materials. Please note that universities failing to meet this requirement will not have their logos included.

We trust this condition will encourage a robust contribution to the academic content of the conference and look forward to your institution's active participation.

Thank you for considering this invitation. We look forward to jointly hosting this significant event and forging a path towards impactful scientific advancements.
